

2006 Big 7 Baseball All-League Team

Story by Justin Fluke

Wrapping up the high school sports season, the 2006 All League Selections have been announced for the Big 7.

Maur Hill/Mount Academy, Jeff West and Holton each had four members selected to the first team, while Royal Valley had two and ACCHS had one. Jeff West won the league title for the 7th straight year, although they didn't get a chance to play Maur Hill who went on to place second at the Class 3A State Tournament in Manhattan.

Representing the Junior Ravens were infielder Greg Arnold, pitcher Matt Minnis, catcher Cole Scherer and utility player Drew Rohlf. From Jeff West, Brayden Black was picked in the outfield along with infielders Alex Schell and Kurtis Tuck and pitcher Brian Payne. Holton was led by pitcher Tyler Miller, infielder Jesse Strawn, outfielder Kyle Porter and utility player Matt Brock. Outfielder Josh Streeter and utility player Jesse Kutina made the First Team for Royal Valley and Andrew Eckert was the top utility player from ACCHS.
