

2008 ALL LEAGUE SOFTBALL SELECTIONS

The Big 7 has released the 2008 All League Baseball and Softball teams with 18 of the 25 top picks from Royal Valley and Holton. In baseball, undefeated league champ Holton led the way with seven all league picks while the softball champion Lady Wildcats placed just three on the first team including two unanimous selections.

Infielder Jenn Cordell and pitcher Elizabeth Dunn of Holton were unanimous first team softball performers while Ashley Ribelin of Royal Valley also was voted top pitcher by every Big 7 coach. Taylor Wells was a top outfielder for the Lady Cats. Royal Valley led the way with four first teamers as Cortney Brown was named top catcher and infielder and Samantha Lambrecht earned kudos in the outfield. ACCHS had three players on the first team including outfielder Gentry Linscott, infielder Courtney Rechart and utility player Julie Westerman. Jeff West was represented by infielder Jenna Grimmett and utility player Kyane Stortzum while Hiawatha's lone first team pick was Nancy Harvalis on the infield.

Honorable mention for softball was awarded to Alexis Lauer and Moriah Stortzum of Jeff West, Ashley Chance of Royal Valley, and Alicia Coverdale of Holton.
